Wine description and information

The Blauburgunder is usually known as Pinot Nero or Pinot Noir. Our Blauburgunder Villa Schmid has a deep red colour and a fruity bouquet of cherry and wild berries. The bouquet combination reappears in the mouth with a full-medium body. The Blauburgunder of our winery is obtained through a particular vinification based on a fermentation in steel tanks and an aging in 75% wooden barrels and 25% barrique. The term “Villa Schmid” is used by our winery to indicate this particular type of vinification.

Pairings
